

THE BUFFALO HISTORY MUSEUM

Mss. C67-4, Box 5, Folder 4

Wilkeson Family Papers

Letter: Thomas Sulzer to Samuel Wilkeson, with lock of hair of John Brown, 6 December 1859

Lock of hair is folder into the triangular envelope affixed to the bottom of the letter and cannot be removed without tearing the paper

Collection of The Buffalo History Museum
Buffalo, NY. Commercial use prohibited.

Baltimore, Dec. 6, 1859.

I have thrown together a letter which you can use or not as you may deem fit. I am unable to say now when I can get back to Charlestown, but everything is so quiet there that all the news can be gathered in Baltimore that is needed. I have seen parties who left Charleston at 8 o'clock last night, and there was nothing there that you are not informed of. If you have not mailed me a copy of the weekly Tribune please do so at once.

I enclose a lock of Capt. Brown's hair. You can swear by it, for I cut it myself when the coffin was opened at Halper's Ferry on Friday night.

Yours in haste & truly,

Thos. L. Sulzer.

Lock of Capt.
Brown's Hair.

Wilkeson family

Samuel Wilkeson Jr.: letters received, 1859

John Brown's hair

C67-4